"We know that we have to hold out and we shall do so. Our confidence rests not only on the strength, organization and execution of discipline in this army, but also on the love of country that unites all Germans without exception. If the war lasts for months or for years, it will merely force the nation into more united solidarity and increase her forces immeasurably. The Germans will emerge from the world-war the strongest of the belligerents."

GERMAN MOVEMENT IN POLAND DEVELOPS

Petrograd, Jan. 3 (via London)—Having fortified themselves along the line through Schleswig, Silesia, Warsaw, "Bawo" and Opoczno, Russian Poland, the Germans have again renewed their stubborn attacks simultaneous to the south and west of Warsaw and have endeavored to cross the Vistula river near Czernowiz, evidently with the intention of launching a movement against Novo-Georgiiewsk. This is the information contained in dispatches received here from the eastern war theater.

In the south, near Gratz, the Germans are attempting an advance towards the Vistula in the region midway between Warsaw and Ivangorod, it is said.

The German plan, according to the dispatches, seems to be to have the Austro-German forces which are near Krakow and moving in the general direction of Budom and Ivangorod, join the veteran forces around Gratz, in besieging Ivangorod.

Military men here express the opinion that it is now apparent that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's real goal is not so much Warsaw, whose capture would give him only a moral advantage, as Novo-Georgiiewsk and Ivangorod, for the Germans in order to keep Western Poland, must possess the latter two places. It is assured, however, that the Germans are still sixty or seventy miles from Ivangorod and that every day the probability of taking these places is lessened.

The general opinion expressed in Petrograd is that neither Ivangorod nor Novo-Georgiiewsk can be taken. The Russians, however, do not depreciate the perfection of the German technique and fierceness of attack and the effect of the Germans' heavy artillery now in action in Poland.

SEVERE ENGAGEMENT REPORTED IN CAUCASUS

Petrograd, Jan. 3.—The following official communication from army headquarters in the Caucasus was issued tonight:

"Throughout the day of January 2, and part of the night of January 3-4, an engagement around Sari Kamysch continued with extreme ferocity, the Turks suffering enormous losses.

There has been no important action in the other regions."

GERMAN CHANCELLOR GIVES INTERVIEW FOR THE AMERICAN PRESS

have noticed how liberally the first war loan was subscribed, and it will be done with the next. We shall have funds enough to continue the war to the end."

"And when does your excellency think that will be?"

Hopes It Will End Soon.

A shrug of the shoulders and a moment's hesitation preceded the answer. "Impossible to say. I hope that it will not be long. We have good news from the east front. The situation there is favorable."

The conversation then turned to the settlement of the disputes toward the various nations with which they are at war. The chancellor said that there seemed to be very little ill-feeling toward the French, on the contrary, the men at the front get along on friendly terms with the French soldiers opposite them.

"But we Germans do not cherish hate," he said; "to hate is not a German trait. The vendetta belongs to the Latin races."

"I do not want this war," he concluded with emphasis. "For the five years that we sat here, we have taught the Greeks to fight. I have labored steadily to develop a good understanding with England. I am anxious in the reducing the other day, I told of these efforts. But all come to naught and yet through my fault,

Blames Great Britain.

The character went on to discuss how the attitude of the British government by steadily urging the Russian war party will be necessary resistance with all those British servants brought the war nearer and nearer.

The discussion then转到了 the negotiations in the government in securing better news facilities for the American press.

"The leveling of the government and the people here is friendly to Americans and we hope that they will understand that they are welcome guests," he said.

Referring to charges of brutality against the German soldiers, he concluded:

"Our soldiers are not bad boys. They do not do such things."
